Hoo-wee baby it's been cold! After years of bragging to my friends up north that we can drive our classics all year long down here I'm having to re-think the whole thing. I mean, sure, we can drive them when it's 12 degrees, but I'm not fond of going anywhere when it's that cold outside. I'll camp inside near the fireplace thank you very much.

So we embark on the Southeastern GTO Association's 39th year. If my math is correct that means the club was founded in 1987. I was living in the quaint town of Goshen, Indiana and it would be 16 years before I'd own my first GTO. I was blown away my first trip through downtown on a Friday or Saturday night. Who knew it'd be Cruise Night, and all four lanes through downtown would be packed with hot rods and classics like the Woodward Dream Cruise in miniature. The authorities shut it down shortly after I discovered it and it moved north to Elkhart, and then to Mishawaka after they shut it down in Elkhart.

There are few, if any, cruise nights in downtown areas anymore, but cruise-ins and car shows occur every weekend somewhere. I read a news item the other day that another organization is trying, again, to outlaw our classics in the name of the environment. Now I agree that we need to control emissions as a whole, but since we represent fewer than 1% of the vehicles on the road and drive them probably 5% as many miles as the other 99%, I'm not too concerned about a ban. Someone will come to their senses (I hope) and do the math.

Just a reminder to mark your calendars for the BOPC which will be hosted by the Olds Club on Saturday April 26 at Piedmont Church. And don't forget the GTOAA National Convention in Kingsport, Tennessee June 17-22. I attended in 2022 with volunteers from our group but without a GTO. This year will be different because...

I was hoping to bring my '67 GTO home from the painter after some touch-ups and the final cut and buff. But a small spot on one of the doors needs some attention. As I may have mentioned before, what started off as a paint job ended up being a frame-off restoration. It only took six and a half years. Not a lot else I plan to do to it other than replacing the halogen headlamps with LEDs and giving the Holley Sniper EFI another chance before I decide whether to put the Quadrajet back on.

And then... gosh – I guess I'll drive it.

We have two events being included for February, both on Saturday February 15th; the 8th Annual Lion's Camp for the Blind Car Show in Waycross, GA and the 11th Annual "I'm Sick of Winter" Sweetheart Cruise-In in Stone Mountain, GA. You can RSVP to either event here"

Keep 'em between the ditches!
